SUBJECT. Remission of Rs 246-12-9 recommended in favour of one Chennamalliah, Toddy Vend Farmer, Gowrisamundra farm, Challakere Taluk for 1896-97

LAST REFERENCE ~~Semi-official~~ letter No. 657/316 dated 24th April 1899 from the Excise Commr in Mysore

One Chennamalliah, patail of Bukkambudi village, took up the toddy vend farm of Gowrisamundra, Challakere Taluk for Rs 114-12-0 a month for the year 1896-97. He fell into arrears in the month of April 1897. An attempt was made to negotiate with the sub-lessees, but they refused to work the farm for the remaining portion of the year on the ground that they had already paid

Chennamallappa

Chennamallappa two months' kistiamount in the shape of initial deposit. No others would be prevailed upon to work the farm for the short period of two months. (2) on the karnamse file

2 At the end of the year the arrears amounted to Rs 304-12-9 (4) on the karnamse file for the recovery of which measures have been adopted. The properties of the farmer as well as of his surety (Nasiappa) were attached. (6) + (7) on the karnamse file The right, title and interest in the properties were sold but none of the properties did not fetch any thing. Of the two properties, that fetched any value, one garden belonging to the farmer brought Rs 40/- and one house belonging to the (17) on the karnamse file. surety brought Rs 18/- making a total amount of Rs 58/-

3. Deducting this sum of Rs 58/- from Rs 304-12-9, the balance still due amounts to Rs 246-12-9 which, the Deputy Tahsildar says, is irrecoverable as both the surety and

and the farmer have no other property left except the defaulter's office of potailship.

4. The Deputy Commr also says that there is nothing to show that the farmer or Surety were not solvent at the time when they ~~contra~~ the contract was given. From the records, it also appears that the defaulter was ~~also~~ a contractor for two previous years, ~~and~~ when he paid up his kists regularly

5. The Excise Commr also recommends the remission of the irrecoverable amount.

A draft sanctioning the remission is submitted for approval or orders.

The instalments due by defaulter Chennamallidh fell into arrears to an extent of Rs 304-12-9 at the close of the year 1896-97. Necessary measures for the recovery of arrears having been adopted, a Sum of Rs 58 realized by the sale of the right, title and interest of the defaulter in his properties as well as that of his surety one Maridappa has been credited towards the arrears
